

A POCKET GUIDE TO
FAYETTEVILLE, AR

AN EXPERIENCE YOU'LL REMEMBER

Fayetteville is more than a city. It's more than a collection of attractions or events. It's an experience.

Whether it be a stroll through art galleries or a hike along the scenic trails, you create your own adventure. This pocket guide is intended to act as both a recommendation and a record of your experience here in Fayetteville.

In this guide you'll find ideas to get you started, but there is so much more to find here. Throughout this guide, you'll see QR codes that, when scanned with your smart phone, take you to the Experience Fayetteville website where you will find even more opportunities to experience all that Fayetteville has to offer.

Also in this guide are pages designated for taking notes and recording your thoughts and experiences as you explore Fayetteville, turning this pocket guide into a bit of a keepsake. So, get out and explore this amazing place we call home and know that we are so glad you're here!

Cheers!

WHAT TO SEE

Fayetteville is home to an amazingly creative community. Whether it's a visual or musical performance, the creative spirit is on full display throughout our city. Scan the QR code for a list of more amazing art to see while you're in town.

WHERE TO DRINK

Maybe your taste for adventure is looking to take a different kind of trail. The Fayetteville Ale Trail, the state's first self-guided, craft brewery tour, may be just what you're looking for. Start your adventure by dropping by the Experience Fayetteville Visitors Center to pick up a passport and purchase your Ale Trail merch. Then, collect your passport stamps with any purchase at each brewery location. Passports are also available at any of the 17 stops on the Ale Trail.
